

PS22 Chorus

The nationally-renowned 5th-grade chorus from Staten Island is coming back to East Brunswick for another amazing free concert in support of the Daniel Pearl Education Center

Thursday, June 1, 7 pm

Temple B'nai Shalom

15 Fern Road, East Brunswick

The PS22 Chorus has gained national and international notoriety for its performances with Katy Perry, Queen Latifah, Tori Amos, Garth Brooks, Jason Mraz and others and whose widely publicized performance of "Over the Rainbow" closed the 83rd annual Academy Awards. The chorus's videos have been watched nearly 90 million times!

PS22 is the largest elementary school in Staten Island, and students come from a wide cross-section of ethnic groups and socio-economic levels.

There is no cost for the concert, and children are strongly encouraged to attend.

Email rbrenowitz1@aol.com to reserve seats or for more information.